

GRAMMAR EDITING WORKSHEET

WWW.GRAMMARIST.COM

Below is a draft of narrative writing which you must edit for grammar correctness. You may use a proofreading mark in this activity or rewrite the whole paragraph.

The school librarian were reading the school newspaper when three students entered a library. One was in 2nd grade asked to borrow Charlottes Web. Two the other students were in 3rd grade. They wanted to know how librarians, enter new books in the catalog. But, before the librarian could help the three children, she tried to silent two in the corner high school students chatting.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

GRAMMAR EDITING WORKSHEET

ANSWER SHEET

WWW.GRAMMARIST.COM

The school librarian were reading the school newspaper when three students entered a library. One was in 2nd grade asked to borrow Charlottes Web. Two the other students were in 3rd grade. They wanted to know how librarians, enter new books in the catalog. But, before the librarian could help the three children, she tried to silent two in the corner high school students chatting.

The school librarian was reading the school newspaper when three students entered the library. One was in 2nd grade, asking to borrow Charlotte's Web. The two other students were in 3rd grade. They wanted to know how librarians enter new books in the catalog. But before the librarian could help the three children, she tried to silence two high school students chatting in the corner.